POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

I. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICY: Overview

- A. Most committees and programs within AVVA have set rules or a specific manner in which they function. This policy section includes all individual committee and program policies currently in place, for those committees or programs that need the structure.
- B. This section of the Policies and Procedures Manual is designed to provide these individual policies for the benefit of the committee chairs, program chairs, and/or members who will be performing the necessary tasks within each committee or program. The policies are in the process of being added, as needed.

II. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICY: AVVA Helping Hands Grant

A. GENERAL RULES

- 1. The project must be sponsored, supported, or endorsed by the AVVA National Board of Directors, State Councils and chapters of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc., and/or the Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.
- 2. Priority is given to matching funds projects.
- 3. AVVA provides funding solely for scientific, charitable, and educational purposes.
- 4. Grants are scheduled for a one (1) year period and are considered for one (1) time, or start-up projects.
- 5. The one (1) year period shall begin at the time of grant acceptance.
- 6. Applications may be received at any time. The instructions and form for applying for this grant are available in the Forms section of the Policy and Procedures Manual, F-PROG08.01.

III. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICY: AVVA VISTA Committee

A. GENERAL:

- 1. AVVA recognizes that VA clinic hours are already being counted, and that procedure remains intact. These guidelines are designed to encompass those countless hours not recognized or counted by the VVA's Veterans Administration Volunteer Services (VAVS).

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

2. The Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America give innumerable hours of service to our veterans and our communities. In an effort to capture the totals and recognize those who have committed their time to AVVA's service, we have created the VOLUNTEERS IN SERVICE TO AMERICA (AVVA VISTA) Program.

B. DEFINITION OF VOLUNTEER HOURS

1. Volunteer hours are hours donated without prejudice or coercion to the betterment or care of our veterans, individually or collectively, or involvement in community activities or local charities in your capacity as an AVVA member.
2. Examples of VISTA hours include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Assisting an individual who would otherwise have difficulty completing day-to-day tasks. (i.e. shopping, cleaning, and/or cooking, etc.);
 - b. Cooking for a chapter meeting, volunteering during fundraisers, and/or chapter functions;
 - c. Driving an individual to doctor's office visits;
 - d. Visiting nursing homes or hospitals;
 - e. Spending time with emotionally, mentally or physically challenged persons ("Lending an ear");
 - f. Tasks required of you by your members at chapter, state, or national events, subject to being specifically sent to said event by your membership.
 - g. Creating items to be donated or building quality-of-life home improvements for the physically challenged;
3. Examples of hours which will not be counted:
 - a. Hours spent in the above activities which are for the sole support of one's own family member.
 - b. Hours spent volunteering in a VA clinic (these hours are counted by VVA).
 - c. Hours spent volunteering in the specific capacity of an AVVA board member.
 - (a) Board members may count hours spent in a capacity of a chapter or state position if they hold one, but may not make an issue of their board position.
4. Collecting Hours:
 - a. Each volunteer will record their donated time(s) and submit to the AVVA VISTA coordinator monthly.
 - b. The volunteer will use Form F-Pro08.03 to record hours. This form will be available on the AVVA website, or may be requested to be sent by U.S. mail to the volunteer from the AVVA VISTA Coordinator, State President, State Representative, or Regional Director.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

- c. The volunteer must completely fill out the identifying portion of the timesheet to insure credit is given to the proper individual and/or AVVA chapter. Hours donated must be recorded for each event with a brief explanation of how time was spent.
- d. The volunteer may submit the timesheet electronically to: vista@avva.org, or mail it to the AVVA VISTA Coordinator at the address provided on the form.
- e. The AVVA VISTA Committee reserves the right to verify hours, should a question be raised as to the validity of records.

C. RECOGNITION

1. The AVVA national board of directors will recognize those individuals and chapters performing the most volunteer hours during the applicable fiscal year for their efforts and accomplishments. These hours must be properly recorded and submitted.
 - a. While VISTA tracks all hours submitted for accounting purposes, this program was created to give recognition to AVVA Regular Members.
2. This recognition will take place during the AVVA luncheon held at the annual meetings.
3. The Fiscal Year will begin March 1, and end on the last day of February of each year.

D. VISTA COORDINATOR

1. The coordinator is a member of the AVVA VISTA Committee and is appointed by the AVVA national president, with the approval of the board of directors.
2. The coordinator will select two (2) or more additional committee members for the term of the committee.
3. The coordinator is responsible for recording, tallying, and reporting volunteer hours to the state president, state representative, and the board of directors on a quarterly basis.
4. The coordinator will submit the annual budget to the Finance Committee.
5. The coordinator mentors and advises the membership regarding qualifying hours.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

E. VISTA COMMITTEE MEMBERS

1. The members of the AVVA Vista Committee are responsible for:
 - a. Assisting the coordinator in counting and verifying hours submitted.
 - b. Determining and verifying the order of award recipients.
 - c. Aiding the coordinator in making decisions regarding VISTA committee concerns.

IV. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICY: Awards Committee

A. PURPOSE

1. The Awards Committee gathers nominations and selects the recipients of the AVVA Member of the Year and Fellowship Awards. The committee shall consist of an odd number of members with the minimum being three (3).
2. These awards are presented to the recipients at the AVVA Annual National Meetings.
3. Criteria for Member of the Year (F-AWA03.01), the Fellowship Award (F-AWA03.02), and the nomination form (F-AWA03.03) are listed on the AVVA website under AVVA General Forms. (www.avva.org)

B. COMMITTEE CHAIR DUTIES

1. The committee chair is appointed by the national president and approved by the board of directors. The committee chair is a non-voting member of the committee.
2. The committee chair will submit the annual budget to the Finance Committee.
3. The chair works with the national secretary to announce through all available avenues of communication that the committee is accepting nominations for Member of the Year and Fellowship Awards; timeframe and location of the nominations forms will be included in all announcements. Announcements begin in January of each year; deadline for submissions is determined after announcement of the annual meeting dates.
4. In an effort to assure fairness and to foster unbiased selections, the chair gathers the nominations and removes the name and all identifying information from the forms and accompanying documentation.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

5. All nominations are numbered consecutively to assure anonymity and sent to the committee members with a ballot for review and a deadline date for voting.
6. After receiving the ballots back from the committee members, the chair shall tally the votes to determine the recipient.
7. The recipients must receive a majority of the votes. In the event of a tie, the national president will cast the deciding vote.
8. The recipients shall remain confidential until the luncheon announcement.
9. The chair shall maintain the ballots until after the recipients are announced.
10. The chair orders the plaques and prepares the certificates.
11. The chair, or the chair's designee, announces the recipients during the AVVA Annual National Meeting.
12. All nominees are recognized during the AVVA National Meeting Luncheon:
 - a. Names of all nominees are read before the recipients are announced.
 - b. Certificate of Recognition is awarded to each nominee.

C. COMMITTEE MEMBER DUTIES

1. The committee members are chosen by the committee chair and approved by the board of directors.
2. Each member must sign an AVVA confidentiality agreement.
3. Each member must maintain impartiality and choose the recipient on merit alone.
4. Members must return the ballot to the committee chair by due date through US Postal Service or email to be counted.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

2. P&P committee remarks are not binding on any AVVA committee. The purpose is for relatively impartial comment to be provided.
3. Unless the policy change request is coming out of the P&P committee, remarks will be restricted to subjects that are legal issues, are grammatical problems, or that are issues that would conflict with or contradict policy in other portions of the Policy and Procedure Manual.

XVIII. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICY: Project Friendship Program TBA

XIX. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICY: Public and Media Relations Committee TBA

XX. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICY: Secondary PTSD Program (PTSD'2')

A. MISSION

1. This program is designed for the partners/spouses, and family members of the veteran who may have returned home a changed person; one that his/her loved ones do not recognize. It is intended to bring awareness to the existence of Secondary PTSD and to recognize the symptoms associated with it.

B. PRINCIPLES

1. This program uses the “peer to peer” support group model to achieve its mission. The Secondary PTSD program is by no means an avenue of counseling or treatment. It is intended solely to give participants an understanding of the illness, while providing a venue for sharing common concerns and experiences. This is not a mandatory program. It is available to any that are interested in the subject matter and are willing to provide support in an open, encouraging and positive manner.
2. Participants in this program support, understand, and share experiences that may bring meaning to an internal challenge in their lives.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

C. FACILITATORS

1. Individuals may volunteer to become a facilitator by contacting either of the co-chairs of this program.
2. The volunteer must go through a series of educational sessions regarding Secondary PTSD and group facilitation skills.
3. When the sessions are completed, the volunteer becomes a facilitator and is prepared to take the program forward and will organize, conduct, and manage a PTSD'2' support group.
 - a. The facilitator must be willing to attend additional educational sessions, perform ongoing subject matter research, and participate in on-line facilitator cohort forums.
 - b. The facilitator must stay current with the subject matter and be prepared to bring the best information to their group members.

D. PROGRAM STRUCTURE

1. While not a mandatory program, it exists for those who are interested in the subject matter and are willing to provide support in an open, encouraging, and positive way.
2. A chair or co-chairs, who will oversee all program content, and who will approve applications for becoming facilitators, manage the program.
3. With the approval of the AVVA National Board of Directors, the chair or co-chairs will determine the content of training, the manner by which the program is facilitated and the time and manner in which training is presented.
 - a. Training sessions may be in an on-line format, or may be conducted in an in-person seminar.
4. The committee chair will submit the annual budget to the Finance Committee.

XXI. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICY: Strategic Planning Committee

A. BASIC FUNCTION

1. The Strategic Plan is a living document, subject to updates or changes and any given time. The document consists of goals for the corporation, and strategies to reach those goals.

XXV. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICY: Website Committee

A. BASIC FUNCTION

1. The Website Committee's main function is to oversee and maintain the Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc. (AVVA) National Website.
 - a. Design or oversee the design of a National Website
 - b. Maintain or oversee the maintenance of the website
 - c. Update, add, or remove information regularly
 - d. Regularly verify the functionality of the website
2. Suggest the overall content and appearance, and execute same, with the approval of the national president and/or the board of directors.
3. Maintain the appearance and content of a Face Book or other social media page if one exists.

B. COMMITTEE STRUCTURE

1. The Website Committee shall prefer a committee chair who has at least basic knowledge of website design and maintenance. The national president, with the approval of the board of directors, will appoint this committee chair.
2. With the approval of the board of directors, the committee chair shall appoint such members as are required to perform the functions of this committee.
3. The committee may request such professional assistance as may be required to create or maintain functionality of the website, which may or may not require funding from a website budget. The national president shall determine the need for professional services on a case-by-case basis.

C. DUTIES OF COMMITTEE CHAIR

1. The committee chair will be responsible for the look, content, and functionality of the National Website. The Website Committee chair shall perform or oversee the following:
 - a. The Website Committee chair shall act as Webmaster.
 - b. The chair shall add, remove, or change content at the request of the board of directors or the national president in a timely manner.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

- c. The chair shall update and/or add previously agreed upon content as soon as is possible upon receipt of such information. (EXAMPLE: meeting minutes and reports).
 - d. The chair shall suggest changes in design if or when such change would be in the best interest of the Corporation. The board of directors must approve design changes.
 - e. The chair shall effect the change in design, addition or subtraction of information, and the manner in which the website functions as required, or as suggested by the board of directors or the national president, by performing the functions his or herself, by delegating tasks to committee members, or by hiring of a website maintenance professional.
 - (i) The hiring of a website professional must be previously agreed upon and budgeted for by the board of directors.
2. The committee chair shall be responsible for the actions of all committee members, and shall report progress or problems to the board of directors on a regular basis.
 3. If professional services are used, the committee chair shall verify any changes or additions made by such professionals by viewing or testing such changes as soon as they are made. The chair or their designated committee member will perform this function.
 4. The committee chair will submit the annual budget to the Finance Committee.

D. DUTIES OF COMMITTEE MEMBERS

1. Committee members shall be expected to inspect the National Website on a weekly basis, in order to determine:
 - a. That the website looks as expected with regard to design
 - b. That the website functions as expected with regard to links and other technical aspects
 - c. That the content is current, accurate and appropriate
2. If the committee member finds any problems they shall immediately report such problems to the Website Committee chair for resolution.
3. Committee members may offer suggestions regarding design, content or functionality as they may see fit.
 - a. Any significant changes shall be discussed by the entire committee, and if approved by the committee, shall be submitted to the national president and/or the board of directors for approval.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

E. WEBSITE CONTENT APPROVAL

1. The national president must approve any other-than-common or consistent information and links to other websites or information that comes from an outside source, such as vendors or other businesses or organizations.
2. The national board of directors shall have final authority over the design and overall content of the national website.
 - a. The board of directors must approve any overall design or significant design change.
 - b. The board of directors must approve the general types of content that will be included in the website, or that will be linked to the website.
 - (i) Definition: General type of information to be contained in or connected to the website, such as Veteran related issues, AVVA related information, legislative issues, health issues that affect Veterans or their families, etc.
 - c. The board of directors may, if they so choose, pre-authorize the website committee to make regular additions or changes in areas that will be reasonably static. An example of such pre-authorization may be to allow for the regular posting of meeting minutes and reports as they come available, without individual approval.
