

AVVA National Disciplinary Committee

October 2022

The AVVA National Disciplinary Committee has been busy this quarter. There has been an issue involving a chapter that has come to our attention. After some investigation and assistance from a VVA member, there has been some resolution. Their issue is not one for the National Disciplinary Committee. It is something that should be handled within the chapter.

Respectfully submitted,

Joanne Blum, AVVA National Disciplinary Chair