Public and Media Relations Committee Report

A policy change came out during the September 2020 AVVA National Board of Directors meeting, changing policy from publishing a regular newsletter to maintaining an online source of information that will be available to the membership. Reason being, the UPDATES newsletter hasn't remained current and needed to be moved into the 21st Century.

Currently, AVVA has a:

- Website - avva.org
- Facebook - Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America
- Twitter - @AssociatesofVi1

And once we find that right person to update the AVVA Blog (we're still looking), we will continue in the sharing of ideas, programs, State Association and Chapter news accessible to our membership. We will continue to use e-mail as a more immediate and direct form of communication when disseminating urgent information out to membership.

We have sufficient tools in social media and electronic communications that allow us to share information, communicate corporation business, and receive much needed information from other Veterans Service Organizations. However, we are still looking for every possible way to update everyone.

Together Always!
