POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

I. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: Overview

- A. Most committees and programs within AVVA have set rules or a specific manner in which they function. This policy section includes all individual committee and program policies for those committees or programs that need the structure.
- B. This section of the Policies and Procedures Manual is designed to provide these individual policies for the benefit of the Committee Chairs, Program Chairs, and members performing the necessary tasks within each committee or program. The guidelines are in the process of being added as needed.

II. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: AVVA Helping Hands Grant

A. GENERAL RULES

- 1. The project must be sponsored, supported, or endorsed by the AVVA National Board of Directors, State Councils, and Chapters of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc., and the Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.
- 2. Priority is given to matching funds projects.
- 3. AVVA provides funding solely for scientific, charitable, and educational purposes.
- 4. Grants are scheduled for a one (1) year period and are considered for one (1) time or start-up project.
- 5. The one (1) year period shall begin at grant acceptance.
- 6. Applications may be received at any time. The instructions and form for applying for this grant are available on the AVVA Website, general forms page. (F-Pro08.01)

III. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: AVVA VISTA Committee

A. GENERAL

- 1. AVVA recognizes that VA Clinic Hours are already being counted and that procedure remains intact. These guidelines are designed to encompass those countless hours not recognized or counted by the VVA's Veterans Administration Volunteer Services (VAVS).
- 2. The Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America give innumerable hours of service to our veterans and our communities. In an effort to capture the totals and recognize those who have committed their time to AVVA's service, we have created the VOLUNTEERS IN SERVICE TO AMERICA (VISTA) Program.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

B. DEFINITION OF VOLUNTEER HOURS

1. Volunteer hours are hours donated without prejudice or coercion to the betterment or care of our veterans, individually or collectively, or involvement in community activities or local charities in your capacity as an AVVA Member.
2. Examples of VISTA hours include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Assisting an individual who would otherwise have difficulty completing day-to-day tasks. (i.e., shopping, cleaning, and/or cooking, etc.).
 - b. Cooking for a chapter meeting, volunteering during fundraisers and/or chapter functions.
 - c. Attending an AVVA or VVA meeting.
 - d. Driving an individual to doctor's office visits.
 - e. Visiting nursing homes or hospitals.
 - f. Spending time with emotionally, mentally, or physically challenged persons ('Lending an ear').
 - g. Tasks required of you by your members at the chapter, state, or national events, subject to being specifically sent to the said event by your membership.
 - h. Creating items to be donated or building quality-of-life home improvements for the physically challenged;
 - i. A maximum of six (6) hours per day spent tending your veteran who would otherwise have difficulty or be unable to do the task at hand, i.e., driving to doctor appointments, bathing, dressing for the day.
 - j. Only hours spent in seminars during the Leadership & Education Conference.
 - k. Only hours spent in the business session of the convention.
3. Examples of hours that will not be counted:
 - a. Hours spent volunteering in a VA Clinic (these hours are counted by VVA).
 - b. Hours spent volunteering in the specific capacity of an AVVA Board Member.
 - (i) Board Members may count hours spent in the capacity of a chapter or state position if they hold one but may not make an issue of their board position.
 - c. Hours spent traveling to conventions or leadership.
 - d. Hours spent tending to your veteran while being compensated by the VA through the Caregiver's Act.
 - e. Hours spent when being compensated financially.
 - f. Hours spent when being compensated with an in-kind gift.
4. Collecting Hours:
 - a. Each volunteer will record their donated time(s) and submit it to the AVVA VISTA Coordinator monthly.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

- b. The volunteer will use (Form F-Pro08.03) to record hours. This form will be available on the AVVA Website or may be requested to be sent by U.S. mail to the volunteer from the AVVA VISTA Coordinator, State President, State Representative, or Regional Director.
- c. The volunteer must completely fill out the identifying portion of the timesheet to ensure credit is given to the proper individual and/or AVVA Chapter. Hours donated must be recorded for each event with a brief explanation of how time was spent.
- d. The volunteer may submit the timesheet electronically or mail it to the AVVA VISTA Coordinator at the address provided on the form.
- e. The AVVA VISTA Committee reserves the right to verify hours, should a question be raised as to the validity of records.

C. RECOGNITION

1. The AVVA National Board of Directors will recognize those individuals and chapters performing the most volunteer hours during the applicable fiscal year for their efforts and accomplishments. These hours must be properly recorded and submitted.
 - a. While VISTA tracks all hours submitted for accounting purposes, this program was created to give recognition to AVVA Regular Members. Although dual member's volunteer hours will be counted, they are ineligible for awards.
2. This recognition will take place during the AVVA luncheon held at the annual meetings.
3. The Fiscal Year will begin March 1, and end on the last day of February of each year.

D. VISTA COORDINATOR

1. The coordinator is a member of the AVVA VISTA Committee and is appointed by the AVVA National President, with the approval of the Board of Directors.
2. The coordinator will select two (2) or more additional committee members for the term of the committee.
3. The coordinator is responsible for recording, tallying, and reporting volunteer hours to the State President, State Representative, and the Board of Directors on a quarterly basis.
4. The coordinator will submit the annual budget to the Finance Committee.
5. The coordinator mentors and advises the membership regarding qualifying hours.

E. VISTA COMMITTEE MEMBERS

1. The members of the AVVA Vista Committee are responsible for:
 - a. Assisting the coordinator in counting and verifying hours submitted.
 - b. Determining and verifying the order of award recipients.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

- c. Aiding the coordinator in making decisions regarding VISTA Committee concerns.

IV. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: Awards Committee

A. PURPOSE

1. The Awards Committee gathers nominations and selects the recipients of the AVVA Member of the Year and Fellowship Awards. The committee shall consist of an odd number of members with the minimum being three (3).
2. These awards are presented to the recipients at the AVVA Annual National Meetings.
3. The National Board, Deputy Regional Directors, Chairpersons of National Committees or Programs, and all members of the National Awards Committee are ineligible for any AVVA National Awards.
4. Criteria for Member of the Year (F-Awa03.01), the Fellowship Award (F-Awa03.02), and the National Nomination Award form (F-Awa03.03) are listed on the AVVA Website under AVVA General Forms. (www.avva.org/forms.html)

B. COMMITTEE CHAIR DUTIES

1. The Committee Chair is appointed by the National President and approved by the Board of Directors. The Committee Chair is a non-voting member of the committee.
2. The Committee Chair will submit the annual budget to the Finance Committee.
3. The chair works with the National Secretary to announce through all available avenues of communication that the committee is accepting nomination for Member of the Year and Fellowship Awards; timeframe and location of the nomination's forms will be included in all announcements. Announcements begin in January of each year; deadline for submissions is determined after announcement of the annual meeting dates.
4. In an effort to assure fairness and to foster unbiased selections, the chair gathers the nominations and removes the name and all identifying information from the forms and accompanying documentation.
5. All nominations are numbered consecutively to assure anonymity and sent to the committee members with a ballot for review and a deadline date for voting.
6. After receiving the ballots back from the committee members, the chair shall tally the votes to determine the recipient.
7. The recipients must receive a majority of the votes. In a tie, the National President will cast the deciding vote.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

8. The recipients shall remain confidential until the luncheon announcement.
9. The chair shall maintain the ballots until the recipients are announced.
10. The chair orders the plaques and prepares the certificates.
11. The chair, or the chair's designee, announces the recipients during the AVVA Annual National Meeting.
12. All nominees are recognized during the AVVA National Meeting Luncheon:
 - a. Names of all nominees are read before the recipients are announced.
 - b. Certificate of Recognition is awarded to each nominee.

C. COMMITTEE MEMBER DUTIES

1. The committee members are chosen by the Committee Chair and approved by the Board of Directors.
2. Each member must sign an AVVA Confidentiality Agreement.
3. Each member must maintain impartiality and choose the recipient on merit alone.
4. Members must return the ballot to the Committee Chair by the due date through U.S. Postal Service or e-mail to be counted.

V. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: Bylaws Committee

A. PURPOSE

1. The Bylaws Committee serves to advise the National Board regarding interpretations or proposed amendments of the AVVA National Bylaws, and to develop and oversee the State and Chapter Bylaw templates to ensure that they are continuously in compliance with the National Corporate Bylaws.

B. HIERARCHY OF DOCUMENTS

1. The corporation ruling order of documents is:
 - a. National Articles of Incorporation
 - b. National Bylaws
 - c. Policies and Procedure Manual

C. COMMITTEE STRUCTURE

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

1. The Committee Chair is appointed by the National President, with the approval of the Board of Directors.
2. The Committee Chair will appoint, with board approval, a minimum of two (2) additional committee members.
3. The Committee Chair will submit the annual budget to the Finance Committee.
4. The Committee Chair will submit progress reports to the national board as often set by the National President.
5. The Committee Chair will receive all National Bylaw amendment proposals and forward them to the committee members for review. All proposals must be submitted on either of two (2) forms: (Ref. F-Byl03.01 or F-Byl03.01a.)
 - a. The committee will review each amendment request and either recommend it, offer an additional revised text, or recommend denial.
 - b. All proposed amendments must be submitted to the membership at the convention.
 - c. All proposed amendments must be received by the Bylaws Committee at least one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the Corporation's National Convention. (Ref. Bylaws Article X).
 - d. The Bylaws Committee shall submit the amendments to the membership not less than ninety (90) days prior to the National Convention, by posting on the AVVA National Website. (Ref. Bylaws Article X).
 - e. The Bylaws Chair will send notices to the membership in advance of the deadlines, which will include the actual deadline dates for a given year.
 - f. The result of the committee review will be provided to the board and the person submitting the proposal.
6. The AVVA Parliamentarian may be used as a resource.
7. The Bylaws Committee will prepare the Bylaw Amendments that have been submitted using the form: (F-Byl03.01) for submission to the general membership at the convention.
8. The Bylaws Committee will review, update, or provide amendments to the Chapter and State Bylaw Templates in accordance with the amendments to the National Bylaws at the convention.
 - a. If Bylaw changes are compulsory, the new State and Chapter Template will be sent to the Incorporated Subsidiaries within two (2) weeks from the last day of the convention.
 - b. The States and Chapters will be given a deadline of December 31 of the convention year, by which they must adopt the new bylaws and send a copy of their adopted Bylaws back to the designated Bylaw Committee representative. Exceptions may be requested by a state and considered by the Bylaws Committee, if unable to meet this deadline.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

- c. Incorporated State and Chapter delegates may jeopardize their voting privileges at the State and National level by not meeting the December 31st deadline.
9. The Bylaws Committee reviews State or Chapter Bylaws submitted to them by the Incorporation Chair for approval. These would be any that are altered by the Incorporating entity in any manner that constitutes a significant departure from the language in the template.
 - a. The Bylaws Committee Chair will provide an electronic copy to the Incorporation Chair and provide a hard copy to the National Secretary to be filed at the National Office, of all State and Chapter Bylaws at any time that amendments are made.
10. The Bylaws Committee may, at any time, serve as a resource to other standing committees.

VI. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: CONDOLENCE PROGRAM (INACTIVE)

A. COMMITTEE PURPOSE

1. The condolence Committee is charged with overseeing the process of disseminating sympathy cards, In-Memory Program information, and other items provided by the national board to the families of our members who have passed away. This is a way in which AVVA can show their members that we care about them and their families.

B. COMMITTEE CHAIR

1. The Committee Chair is appointed by the National President, with the approval of the National Board of Directors, for a term of two (2) years.
2. The Committee Chair receives a packet of death notices from the VVA Chaplain. The chair will verify duplications and any notices over one (1) year old.
3. The Committee Chair prepares an AVVA furnished sympathy card, including an insert containing In-Memory Program information which is provided by Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund (VVMF), and other mailing or inserts as requested; addresses and stuffs the card, and mails it in a timely manner.

XII. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: Cathy Keister Spirit of Excellence Award Committee

A. PURPOSE

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

1. An AD HOC Committee was temporarily formed and was assigned the task of creating this award, its criteria, and the committee and chair positions that would take on the future oversight of this award. The award was created to honor Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America (AVVA) Vice President Cathy Keister, who passed away while in the office on March 26, 2016. This award is the second-highest achievement award in the Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America Organization.
2. Cathy was devoted to her chapter and fellow members, and yet was the first one to assist any chapter or person that may have the need. She was most admired for her ability to mentor, her standard of ethics and excellence in her work, and the tenacity to take on causes greater than herself.

B. WHO QUALIFIES

1. This award will be presented to a chapter that demonstrates extraordinary loyalty and service to each other, veterans and their families, and their community and meets the listed criteria.
 - OR: To an individual who demonstrates the ability to lead, mentor, and inspire others to serve in the good works of their community, state, or chapter and the Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America and meets the listed criteria.
2. The nominee for this award may not be a current national officer or national regional director.

C. WHO CAN NOMINATE

1. Any member of AVVA or VVA, who is currently in good standing, may nominate any member of AVVA or any AVVA chapter for this award.

D. CHAPTER NOMINATION CRITERIA

1. The nominating party must provide a written statement verifying the AVVA Chapter's adherence to the following criteria: (See also the nomination form F-Awa03.04)
 - a. Chapter Members must exhibit extraordinary loyalty to each other, as well as veterans, veterans' families, or their community.
 - b. Chapter must be able to document their exemplary service to each other, and veterans, veterans' families, or their community.
 - c. The chapter must be in good standing, with no pending disciplinary actions against itself or any of its members.

E. INDIVIDUAL NOMINATING CRITERIA

1. The nominating party must provide a written statement verifying the AVVA Member's adherence to the following criteria: (See also the nomination form F-Awa. 03.04)

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

- a. The member must show the abilities of a leader or be someone who people commonly follow in the planning and executing of AVVA projects or events.
- b. The member must display an interest in or talent for mentoring and inspiring others.
- c. The member must be at the forefront of organizing and/or participating in the service and good works within their AVVA State, AVVA Chapter, or within their community.
- d. The person must be an AVVA member in good standing, with no pending disciplinary actions against them.

F. PREPARING THE NOMINATION

1. Any person nominating a chapter or individual for the Cathy Keister Spirit of Excellence Award must complete the following steps:
 2. (Highly recommended) Read and understand all criteria that would apply to your nominee, both here and listed on the nomination form.
 3. Prepare a statement of details that support your nomination.
 4. Collect any written supporting statements from others, corroborating articles from magazines, newsletters, newspapers, etc.; collect any photographs or other supporting evidence of your statements.
 - a. Copies of these items must accompany the nomination form, sent to the Nomination Chair.
 5. Fill out the nomination form thoroughly and make a copy for your records.
 6. Send the nomination form and copies of all supporting documents and files to the Nomination Chair at the address listed on page one of the Nomination Form.
 - a. The Nomination Form may be mailed through USPS regular mail, or it may be sent by e-mail.
 - (i) If sent by e-mail, all forms, photos, statements, and articles must be either word docs, PDF files, .gif, or .jpg files and must be sent as attachments to the e-mail.
 7. The nominating chairperson will send a confirmation e-mail to the submitting party.

G. RECIPIENT DETERMINATION

1. The Executive Board will make the decision regarding the recipient of the Cathy Keister Spirit of Excellence Award. The Executive Board is made up of the four (4) National Officers: The President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

2. The Nomination Chair will receive all nominations and make copies stripped of all identifying information. These copies will be numbered and sent to the Executive Board, who will read and discuss all of the data for each nominee.
3. The Executive Board will notify the Nomination Chair of the chosen recipient's number.
4. The Nomination Chair will match that number with the original nomination forms and documents.
5. The award will be presented at the AVVA National Convention or the VVA/AVVA Leadership and Educational Conference, depending on the year of occurrence.
 - a. All nominees will be announced at the AVVA Luncheon and presented with a certificate recognizing their nomination.
 - b. The award winner will be confidential until the announcement is made.
6. Recipients of this award will be listed on the plaque held in the AVVA National Office, by year and name.
7. Should the criteria not be sufficiently met by any nominee, the award will not be presented that year.

XIII. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: Leadership Development Committee

A. PURPOSE

1. The Leadership Development Committee serves the purpose of developing and initializing training, education, and guidance for the membership of AVVA and its Board of Directors.

5. The committee should design and oversee projects and programs that relate to public relations, having the intention of promoting AVVA and its programs, and serving the membership.
6. The PMR Committee Chair will be responsible for submitting annual budget requests.

XXI. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: Scholarship Committee

A. PURPOSE

1. The purpose of the Scholarship Committee is to oversee the Scholarship Program and all aspects of the Scholarship application process.
2. The Scholarship Program Chair is appointed by the National President, with the approval of the National Board of Directors. The Committee Chair appoints the members of the committee and assigns the individual tasks. At least two, (2) but preferably three (3) of the committee members will make up the Evaluation Team, and should be persons who have some experience with processing scholarship applications, or similar evaluation skills.
3. Unless circumstances arise, which would give reason to consider issuing more than one scholarship in a year, there will be one scholarship granted at the beginning of each school year, which will be in an up to $3000.00 per grant, depending on expenses. If actual expenses are less than $3000.00, the scholarship grant will be adjusted accordingly.

B. COMMITTEE CHAIR DUTIES

1. The Committee Chair will set up a post office box near their residence, for the purpose of receiving scholarship applications and other committee or program correspondence. This post office box should be set up to be billed in no more than six-month intervals, to be maintained for as long as the chairperson remains in office. The box may be set up with the USPS, UPS, or similar valid business that will ensure the mail will be properly received.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

- a. The shorter billing periods are suggested so that significant money will not be wasted on an unused PO Box if or when the Committee Chair changes from one person to another.
 - b. If the PO Box does change, the Committee Chair will make sure a Change of Address Request has been submitted.
2. The Chair will maintain the e-mail address: scholarship@avva.org, or closely related server indication, for any e-mail correspondence between AVVA and the public, and respond to all inquiries. When a new Chair is appointed, the VVA I.T. service must be notified that the e-mail needs to be forwarded to a new person.
 3. The Committee Chair receives all applications and other correspondence, reviews applications for eligibility, and forwards all application information to the committee members who are assigned to the Evaluation Team. Other correspondence will be responded to appropriately.
 4. After the Evaluation Team completes its process, the Committee Chair will notify the AVVA National Board of the selection. The Committee Chair will notify the selected recipient of their scholarship grant and include any instruction or other information needed by the recipient.
 5. The Committee Chair will make arrangements for the scholarship payment to be sent to the appropriate educational institution, and/or make other appropriate arrangements to pay for approved materials or supplies related to the specific scholarship grant.
 - a. If a scholarship includes the purchase of books, or any other physical or digital materials needed to participate in the schooling, they must have been approved by the committee in advance for payment; receipts must be collected and maintained.
 6. The Committee Chair will report to the AVVA National Board of Directors on a every quarterly basis, as well as any other time deemed necessary by ongoing circumstances.
 7. The Committee Chair will complete and turn in a budget request each year.

C. COMMITTEE MEMBERS' DUTIES

1. The Members of the Scholarship Committee Evaluation Team will be responsible for reviewing all applications and connected documents for the purpose of selecting a recipient for a particular school year. They will also be responsible for collecting and evaluating any additional background or subsequent information that may be deemed necessary to a determination.
2. With the assistance of the Committee Chair, all committee members will be responsible for disseminating the information about the scholarship to VVA, AVVA, other veteran related organizations, the veteran community and to the general public. This will include, but not be limited to, the style of advertising materials published on Facebook, Twitter, the AVVA Website, submissions to other organizations' newsletters and publications, other websites that are used to search for scholarships, and other sources of circulation.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

3. The Committee Members and the Chair will regularly send out appropriately modified donation request letters, and the two supporting documents that accompany this letter, to various businesses, veteran groups, and any other possible resources, in order to solicit funding for the scholarship program.
4. Committee Members and the chair will review the scholarship application and supporting documents regularly to keep all information updated, and to change the essay question subject annually.

D. THE EVALUATION PROCESS

1. All applicants must be one of the following:
 - a. A veteran who has served honorably in the U.S. Military or an AVVA member who has been a member of the organization for at least two consecutive years.
 - (i) The term “Served honorably” is defined as those veterans who did not receive a dishonorable discharge.
 - b. The spouse, child, grandchild, or great-grandchild of either of the above.

E. An application will be required which will ask for qualifying information and include questions intended to give a picture of the person’s character and intentions as well as their overall need for aid. (See application for details)

1. Required documents that must accompany the application are:

G. Institutions considered: Any accredited two (2) or four (4) year college or university, or any accredited trade school.

Associates of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.

POLICIES and PROCEDURES

§ 11

H. The Evaluation Team will use the following criteria to make the selection of a scholarship recipient:

1. A point system is to be created for evaluation of applications. Numerical weights will be assigned for such items as financial or social need, the required essay, etc. one (1) will be the lowest, and ten (10) or twenty (20) will be the highest value. The Program Chair will eliminate any applications which do not meet the minimum criteria prior to distribution to the Evaluation Team.

a. Such items of interest as activities and experiences will be assessed and compared, but not given a numerical score, and will only be used in tie situations.

I. All documents and forms related to this scholarship can be found on the AVVA Website, on the Scholarship Information page.

J. SCORING

1. The applications will be evaluated using a point system for the main criteria and consideration of other criteria comparisons when there are scores that tie or if a certain factor is highlighted by the scorer.

2. Points for questions will be ranked as follows:

a. Questions A and B will be given points from one (1) to ten (10)

b. Questions C will be considered only in tie situations.

c. The essay will be given points: one (1) to twenty (20). The essay will be evaluated for how well the applicant responded to the core of the question, the character of the content, how well thought out it appears to be overall, etc. Spelling and grammar will only be a consideration if it appears to be a serious indication of something deeper.

XXII. COMMITTEE AND PROGRAM POLICIES: Secondary PTSD Program (PTSD'2')

A. MISSION

1. This program is designed for the partners/spouses, and family members of the veteran who may have returned home a changed person; one that his/her loved ones do not recognize. It is intended to bring awareness to the existence of Secondary PTSD and to recognize the symptoms associated with it.

B. PRINCIPLES

1. This program uses the "peer to peer" support group model to achieve its mission. The Secondary PTSD program is by no means an avenue of counseling or treatment. 2. The National Board of Directors shall have final authority over the design and overall content of the National website.
 - a. The Board of Directors must approve any overall design or significant design change.
 - b. The Board of Directors must approve the general types of content that will be included on the website, or that will be linked to the website.
 - (i) Definition: General type of information to be contained in or connected to the website, such as veteran related issues, AVVA related information, legislative issues, health issues that affect veterans or their families, etc.
 - c. The Board of Directors may, if they so choose, pre-authorize the Website committee to make regular additions or changes in areas that will be reasonably static. An example of such pre-authorization may be to allow for the regular posting of meeting minutes and reports as they become available, without individual approval.
