

DEPENDENTS AND SURVIVORS

DEPENDENCY AND INDEMNITY COMPENSATION (DIC)

What is Dependency and Indemnity Compensation?

Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC) is a monthly benefit paid to eligible survivors of:

- Servicemembers who died while on active duty, active duty for training, or inactive duty training, OR
- Veterans whose death resulted from a service-connected injury or disease, OR
- Veterans whose death resulted from a non-service-connected injury or disease, and who were totally disabled from their service-connected disabilities for
 - at least 10 years immediately preceding their death, OR
 - since the Veteran's release from active duty and for at least five years immediately preceding death, OR
 - at least one year immediately preceding death if the Veteran was a former prisoner of war who died after September 30, 1999.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

SURVIVING SPOUSE

You may be eligible for DIC benefits if you are a surviving spouse who:

- was married to a military Servicemember who died on active duty, active duty for training, or inactive duty training, OR
- married the Veteran before January 1, 1957, OR
- married the Veteran within 15 years of discharge from the period of military service in which the disease or injury that caused the Veteran's death began or was aggravated, OR
- was married to the Veteran for at least one year, OR
- had a child with the Veteran, AND
- cohabited with the Veteran continuously until the Veteran's death or, if separated, was not at fault for the separation, AND
- is not currently remarried.*

You may be eligible to continue receiving DIC benefits if you remarried on or after December 16, 2003, and were at least 57 years of age.

Disabilities determined by VA to be related to your military service can lead to monthly non-taxable compensation, enrollment in the VA health care system, a 10-point hiring preference for federal employment and other important benefits. Ask your VA representative or Veterans Service Organization representative about Disability Compensation, Pension, Health Care, Caregiver Program, Career Services, Educational Assistance, Home Loan Guaranty, Insurance and/or Dependents and Survivors' Benefits.
